Numb. 9155.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 4, to Tuesday April 7, 1752.

Whitehall, April 7.

THIS Morning Richard Lucas, one of His Majesty's Messengers, arrived at the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderneſſe's Office, with an Account, that the Yachts, with His Majesty, sailed from Harwich Yesterday, about Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, with a fair Wind, for Holland.

Naples, March 21. Within these few Days several Vessels, laden with Corn and other Provisions for this Capital, which have been detained for some Time past by high and contrary Winds, arrived safe in this Port. We are assured, that in Consequence of the strong Sollicitations made by Prince Esterhasy, Ambassador from their Imperial Majesties to this Court, Orders have been sent to the Commandant of Messina to release the Ship which carried his Imperial Majesty's Flag, and which was detained there under Pretence that the Captain was one of his Neapolitan Majesty's Subjects, and as such forbid by the Laws of his Country from serving at Sea under any Foreign Power. The Eruptions of Mount Vesuvius have entirely ceased, so that at present we are delivered from the dreadful Apprehensions we have been under for some Time past. 'Tis said the Queen is again with Child, and that the same will soon be declared at Court. Upon a Rumour that some of the Persons who lately robbed and murdered the King's Treasurer at Barletta, were come hither in order to dispose of some of the Effects they stole from thence, Orders are given for a strict Search to be made in order to discover them. A great Number of Sailors arrived here last Week from Lipari, in order to serve on board the Squadron that is going on a Cruize against the Barbary Pyrates. Last Saturday a Maltese Man of War arrived here from Spain, having on board 500,000 Piastres, being a Remittance from his Catholick Majesty to this Court. Some Days ago a Felucca, with 35 Persons on board, was lost in a violent Storm in the Gulph of Policastro, and every Soul perished.

Rome, March 22. 'Tis said the Elector of Treves hath at length obtained Leave of the Pope to name a Coadjutor for himself to his Archbishoprick, which he has been a long Time soliciting. They have begun to work with great Diligence at the repairing and enlarging the Port of Anzio; and there is now on the Tapis a Project for cutting a new Canal from Tevero to the Sea, which will be of infinite Service to Commerce.

Petersbourg, March 22. Her Imperial Majesty has appointed Captain James Kennedy, an Irish Gentleman, and Captain Ywan Tscherewin, to be Rear Admirals of her Fleet. We learn by different Accounts from Persia, that Prince Heraclius of Georgia has lately obtained such considerable Advantages, that 'twas imagined he would in the End supplant Schach Doub, and procure himself to be acknowledged Sovereign. They likewise add, that most of the Russian Merchants were retiring with their Effects to Derbent, in order to prevent their being involved in the general Confusion the Troubles in that Kingdom were like to bring on the Inhabitants; and at the same Time to be ready on all Occasions to retire into the Russian Dominions.

Turin, March 24. We now feel the good Effects of the Precautions used by the King in sending for all the Corn from Sardinia that could be spared, and in filling Magazines therewith, in order to supply his Subjects with it in case of Need; for, notwithstanding the Shortness of the Crops last Year in Piemont, and other Provinces, we have now Corn at a reasonable Price, when all the neighbouring Provinces are in the greatest Want of it. The Officers appointed to review the Troops in the different Garrisons of these States, have already acquainted his Majesty with the good Condition in which they found those Regiments that have passed in Review before them. We have received Advice from Vienna, that Count Seilern is appointed by their Imperial Majesties to be Envoy Extraordinary to this Court.

Copenhagen, March 30. The Celebration of the King's Birth-Day is deferred till Easter Monday. Count Linar, late Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from this Court to that of Russia, and who lately returned from thence, had a private Audience of his Majesty on the 19th Instant. The King enjoys a pretty good State of Health, and often diverts himself with with Hunting in the Neighbourhood of Jagerſbourg. On Saturday laſt M. Paludan, lately nominated by his Majeſty to the Biſhoprick of Chriſtianſand in Norway, was conſecrated by the Biſhop of Zeelande.

Vienna, April 1. On Thurſday laſt, being Maunday Thurſday, their Imperial Majeſties, the Archduke Joſeph, the Archdutcheſs Maria Anne, and the Princeſs Charlotte of Lorrain, received the Holy Sacrament from the Hands of the Pope's Nuncio. After which his Imperial Majeſty, according to ancient Cuſtom, waſhed the Feet of twelve poor old Men; whilſt her Imperial Majeſty did the ſame to twelve poor old Women, in her own Apartment. The Affair of the Inveſtitures goes now on entirely to the Emperor's Satisfaction, for beſides the ſeveral Princes of Germany, who are preparing to ſend Miniſters here with the neceſſary full Powers for that Purpoſe, we are aſſured that the King of Sardinia, and the Duke of Modena, intend to receive the like Inveſtitures of the Eſtates they hold in Italy by the Title of Fiefs of the Empire. The Court has ſent into Upper Auſtria a Perſon they can confide in, who is to examine ſtrictly into the Cauſe of the Tumults that have lately happened there on Account of Religious Grievances, which he has full Power to redreſs in ſuch Manner as he ſhall judge proper.

Lyons, April 2. We have already retaken moſt of the Priſoners who eſcaped lately out of the Archbiſhop's Priſon, ſeveral of whom are to be executed next Week. The Price of Bread, which has been exceſſive dear for ſome Time paſt in this Country, begins to diminiſh. They write from Avignon, that M. Folard, Knight of the Royal and Military Order of St. Louis, died there the 23d of laſt Month, in the 84th Year of his Age.

Dreſden, April 3. Prince Charles having been ſeized at Elſterwerda with the Symptoms of the Small Pox on Monday laſt, the King immediately gave Orders for his being conveyed to the Palace in this City, where he was no ſooner arrived than they began to appear. All the Court were greatly alarmed on this Occaſion; and as neither the Prince Royal, nor the two youngeſt Princes, have had that Diſtemper, they are all ordered into diſtant Apartments.

Munich, April 5. On Monday laſt being the Elector of Bavaria's Birth Day, who then entered into the 26th Year of his Age, the ſame was celebrated at Court with great Magnificence. The Departure of the Elector of Cologn is fixed for Friday next; and the Elector Palatin's Arrival is ſoon expected.

Mayence, April 8. The Elector our Sovereign, who was ſeized ſome Days ago with a Fever, is now perfectly recovered. We learn by private Letters from Alſace and the three Biſhopricks, that they continue to make the neceſſary Preparations in thoſe Provinces for the Camps that are to be formed during the Summer.

Hague, April 13. Yeſterday the States of Holland and Weſtfrizeland opened their Aſſembly, and this Morning continued their Deliberations. A Deputation from the States of the Province of Guelderland, conſiſting of Count Byland, and the Barons Hekeren and Tork, are arrived here to execute a private Commiſſion, and have already had a private Audience of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 7.

Orders for the Court's going out of Mourning on Sunday next, the 12th Inſtant, for the late Queen of Denmark.

Whitehall, March 28.

The King has been pleaſed to iſſue his Letter under his Majeſty's Royal Sign Manuel, to the Earl Marſhal of England, that the Honourable Dame Mary Sherard (Relict of Sir Brownlow Sherard, Bart. deceaſed, and eldeſt of the two Grand Daughters and Coheirs of the Right Honourable Robert Sydney, late Earl of Leiceſter, deceaſed) and her Iſſue, ſhall uſe and enjoy the Name of Sydney, and bear and uſe the Coat Armour of the ſaid late Earl of Leiceſter, deceaſed.

March 24, 1752.

This is to give Notice, That the Gentlemen of the County of Nottingham (over and above the Reward of Fifty Pounds, already promiſed by John Liſter of Bawtry, Eſq;) do hereby promiſe to pay the further Reward of Fifty Pounds, to any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall diſcover the Perſons, or any of them, who lately wrote two threatning Letters to the ſaid Mr. Liſter, or who ſtopt Mr. Henry Ward upon the Highway, ſuppoſing him to have been the ſaid Mr. Liſter, ſo as he, ſhe, or they be apprehended and convicted thereof. And that the Money is lodged in the Hands of Mr. Smith, a Banker in Nottingham for that Purpoſe.

Navy-Office, March 11, 1752.

The Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy give Notice, that on Wedneſday the 8th of next Month, at Eleven o'Clock in the Morning preciſely, they will be ready to treat with ſuch Perſons as are willing to ſerve his Majeſty with Engliſh Canvas, that they may attend with their Propoſals at that Time.

Navy Office, April 2, 1752.

The principal Officers and Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy give Notice, that there is in the Hands of the Treaſurer of the Navy, Money to pay off all Navy and Tranſport Bills, regiſter'd in the Months of April, May, June, July, Auguſt and September 1750, with the Intereſt due on ſuch as carry the ſame, in order that thoſe Perſons who are poſſeſſed of ſuch Bills may bring them to this Office to be aſſigned for Payment accordingly.

Navy Office, April 2, 1752.

As the paſſing the Accounts of Sir John Lequt and George Dodington, Eſq; late Treaſurers of his Majeſty's Navy, are carrying on with all the Expedition that may be, it is recommended to ſuch Perſons as have had Bills aſſigned upon them by the Navy Board, and have not receiv'd their Money for the ſaid Bills, forthwith to call for the ſame; and all Perſons who have any Impreſts ſtanding out againſt them, and have not any Bills or Accounts in this Office to clear the ſaid Impreſts, are deſired forthwith to bring in their Bills or Accounts to diſcharge them, that ſo the ſaid Impreſts may not be brought to account and return'd into the Exchequer, as otherwiſe they will be; and ſuch Perſons as have paſſed their Accounts, and have not taken up their Impreſts, are required to carry their perfect Bills to the late Treaſurers Office, and to take up their Impreſts.

Stamp-

Stamp-Office, Lincoln's Inn, April 6, 1752.

The Commiſſioners for managing his Majeſty's Stamp-Duties do hereby give Notice, That there is in their Office a Quantity of damaged and uſeleſs Parchment, and Paper and printed Blanks to be diſpoſed of to the beſt Advantage of the Revenue under their Care, which are intended to be ſold by Weight; wherefore any Perſon who is willing to purchaſe and pay ready Money for the ſame, is deſired to ſend his Propoſal in Writing, ſealed up and directed to the ſaid Commiſſioners, on or before the 20th Inſtant. And every ſuch Perſon may, in the mean Time, by applying to the Warehouſe-keeper, have Liberty during Office Hours, to view the ſaid Parchment, Paper and printed Blanks.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Diſtempers, publiſhed by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thouſand Caſes) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulſions, Light-headedneſs, and the worſt Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Doſe is generally ſufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewiſe a moſt effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleuriſies, Quincies, acute Rheumatiſms, and the Lowneſs of Spirits, and Uneaſineſſes proceeding from ſlow and latent Fevers, which are generally miſtaken for Vapours and Hyſterics; and a ſingle Doſe remarkably ſtops the Progreſs of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Conſequences ariſing from that very common Diſorder, the Source of almoſt all Diſtempers.

This Powder (which is a very ſafe and pleaſant Medicine to take) is ſold only by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-againſt the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doſes, with good Allowance to thoſe who buy it for charitable Uſes, or to ſell again.

* See a Diſſertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Diſtempers, ſold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6 d.

† This Medicine, by ſpecial Appointment, (and to prevent a Counterfeit Sort, that is vended by ſeveral Perſons in Ireland) is ſold in that Kingdom, only by Mr. James Eſdall, Bookſeller, on the Blind Quay; and by Mr. Henry Delamain and Co. at the India Warehouſe, in Abbey-ſtreet, Dublin.
